

Your Will, Your Wishes, Your Legacy

Gifts in wills have enabled charities in Jersey to support transformative and positive changes, shaping our community, environment and wellbeing. Many charities rely on gifts in wills to continue their vital work into the future.

Making your will is the best way to protect the people and causes you care about; it enables you to set out your wishes and decide whom to pass your money, property and possessions on to.

Your legacy may include donating to a charity that has made a difference to you, someone you care about or a cause you are passionate about.

Including a gift to charity in your will, no matter how small, will make a big difference to the future you wish to leave.
